

NATIONAL COUNCIL ELECTION REGULATION POLICY

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to provide clear guidelines relating to the campaigning and publicity of candidates for Dancesport Australia National Council.

This policy's intention is to ensure a fair, equitable and unbiased outcome that is based solely on the skills, talents, attributes and beliefs of the individual.

This policy attempts to ensure that mass campaigning of groups with a vested interest or bias is minimised as much as possible.

Failure to comply with these regulations may lead to disqualification as a candidate, receiving reduced publicity or disciplinary action under Dancesport Australia rules. Any questions concerning these regulations must be referred in the first instances, to the DSA CEO.
